Perched on the headland between South Gorge and Main Beach, the view at the Point Lookout Surf Life Saving Club is hard to beat. This large venue offers two levels of relaxed spaces that can be totally transformed into a magical event venue. The upper floor offers a licensed bar and deck with panoramic views of the Pacific Ocean. On the ground level, a glassed-in open space with timber floors leads out to a deck and lawn with spectacular views of Main Beach and the perfect ceremony location, South Gorge.

Peak wedding season (May-September) at the Surf Club coincides with humpback migration. These giants of the ocean can be spotted from the decks of the Surf Club.

Stradbroke Island Events' Surf Club packages are designed to maximise the Surf Club's spectacular location and minimise the stress of celebration planning so clients can enjoy every step towards their perfect event. SIE's packages include everything required for a gloriously styled, seamless wedding.
